CHARLIE ALLEN RESTORATIONS, INC. AWARDED TWO GOLD CONTRACTOR OF THE YEAR AWARDS (CotYs) for 2006

November 7, 2006 - Charlie Allen Restorations, Inc. announced today that it has been presented with two 2006 Gold CotYs by the Eastern Massachusetts chapter of the National Association of the Remodeling Industry (EM-NARI).

The first CotY was in the category of Commercial Projects and was awarded for fireplace and chimney work done on the Smith & Wollensky Restaurant. Charlie Allen Restorations lined 7chimney flues and installed 4custom gas log sets and 3 gas fireplace inserts to provide authentic looking gas fires in this 1891 National Register building.

The second CotY was in the category of Kitchen Remodel greater than $150,000. A Victorian Queen Anne in Dorchester, MA was renovated to bring more window space, light and greater flow within the kitchen and between other rooms. The project was successfully completed by bringing together of team of resources including Puccio Electric, Mark-One, Inc., Surfaceworks, Inc., Metropolitan Cabinet and Countertops & Catchlight Painting.

The CotYs are the chapter's way of recognizing achievements in remodeling projects by NARI members in a variety of categories and price levels. Awards were announced at an Evening of Excellence event on November 1st at the Crowne Plaza in Natick.

"We are very appreciative of the awards and want to thank NARI, the selection committee and the other companies that contributed to the success of this project. We also would like to congratulate the other winners of CotYs, they were all well deserved," stated Charlie Allen.

Charlie Allen Restorations was also a 2005 Gold winner for Residential Exteriors and awarded an Honorable Mention in the Kitchen Remodel over $150,000 category.

NARI is a not-for-profit trade association committed exclusively to enhancing the professionalism of the remodeling industry and providing ethical and quality service to the region's remodeling homeowners. NARI stands as the spokesgroup of the industry and an ally to the region's homeowners.
